Day 02: Mount Abu

This morning, feed your appetite with a delicious breakfast at the hotel, before making our way up to Mount Abu, just a short adventure away from the hustle and bustle of Jaipur. The only hill station in Rajasthan, this tiny town provides an utterly breathtaking view from above of this dusky city, not to mention a much-needed break from the scorching desert heat.

There is certainly no shortage of things to see in Mount Abu – from roads lined with treasured gems, to brilliant marble temples – and for the adventurers, a walk to the ancient ruins of Achalgarh will be sure to impress. At night, journey to Guru Shikar, the highest point in the Aravalli mountain range, to get a spectacular panoramic view of the city!

Day 03: Mount Abu – Jaisalmer

After breakfast, our journey begins to one of the oldest and most dramatic kingdoms in Rajasthan! Experience the picturesque views of the various terrains of Northern India as we drive along paths sometimes accompanied by villagers, rickshaws, even camels!

When we arrive to the hotel, we will check in and leave you free for the night– for dinner; we suggest a romantic private desert dinner under the star-studded sky

Day 04: Jaisalmer - Sam Dunes

After breakfast we make our way to the true treasure of the city – Jaisalmer Fort, which was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2013. And it's hard not to see why...this massive desert citadel was built in the 12th century and evokes mysteries of a bygone era. Hidden behind the thick bastions of these walls are plentiful palaces, Hindu temples, bustling bazaars, and over 500 families, making it one of the world's rarest living forts.

Just 6 km outside of Jaisalmer is Bada Bah, or "Big Garden," an eerie ghost town with a hint of romanticism in its majestic golden sculptures. At dusk we will continue our journey west to the Sam Sand Dunes. After check-in at the hotel, a Jeep safari will be waiting to take you on an adventure through the desert hills, and upon arrival back at the hotel, an extravagant gala dinner and folk dance awaits you and your beau.

Day 05: Sam Dunes – Jodhpur

Set your alarm this morning for an early camel ride through the Great Thar Desert. Once back at the hotel, we'll have a delicious breakfast before heading back out onto the road, making our way to Jodhpur. "The Blue City," as it is more familiarly known, gets its name from the indigo wash of the buildings and houses – though for reasons unknown – its mysticism is irrefutable.

We will visit Umaid Bhawan, arguably one of the most romantic palaces in India, with 374 rooms set amongst 26 acres of lush gardens. In the afternoon you will journey to Mehrangarh Fort, the majestic fort that towers over Jodhpur, for a breathtaking view of the glittering city beneath. Then, at dusk, Jaswant Thada awaits –the intricately carved marble sheets of this mausoleum emit a beautiful warm glow when illuminated by the sun!

Day – 06: Jodhpur – Udaipur

After this morning's breakfast you will journey once again to Udaipur to discover the truly magical experience this city has to offer. Set amongst hills and dotted with marble palaces, this breathtaking "City of Dawn" is sure to delight all of the senses!

This city sits on the banks of the spectacular Lake Pichola, in the midst of which lies a stunning white palace-cum-hotel. Our tour of the city begins at City Palace, a large hilltop complex where the Maharaja and his family reside, and then continues on to Monsoon Palace, another hilltop palatial residence perfect for getting lost with your significant other. End the day roaming the gardens of Gulabh Bagh with your significant other and a countless array of roses.

Day – 07: Udaipur

Today is quite the adventure, as after breakfast you will spend the day journeying through Chittorgarh, the largest fort complex in all of India! This massive rock structure is nearly 6 km long, and upon learning its history, you will understand why this area is epitomized for its romanticism, chivalry, and tragedy.

At night we will return to Udaipur where you are free to shop for souvenirs, grab a bite of samosa or dahi bada, and stroll through the streets of the city!

Breakfast ✓ | Lunch ✗ | Dinner ✗

Day 08: Udaipur

Fill your bellies with one last taste of Indian cuisine this morning, because after breakfast we make our way to the airport or railway station for your connection onward.
